
How do your community's finances compare?

Are your municipality's taxes high? Is your city or village in too much debt? Is it spending your taxes wisely?

MunicipalFacts07, from the respected Wisconsin Taxpayers Alliance (WISTAX), has the answers. This 106-page, fact-filled book is an unparalleled wealth of city and village information.

MunicipalFacts07 has the answers.

MunicipalFacts07 provides per capita spending figures from 2001 to 2005 for 229 Wisconsin cities and villages with populations between 2,000 and 150,000. This year's edition includes net spending levels for more powerful comparisons.

MunicipalFacts07 also has data to compare municipal tax levies, tax rates, equalized values, shared revenues, debt, and resident income. No other publication has such comprehensive statistics on Wisconsin municipalities. This one-of-a-kind book groups municipalities by size, so you can easily compare your community against its peers.

Down to the details.

Think property taxes and spending are too high? Too low? See how they've changed since 2001. Want to know how much your community spends on police? Fire protection? Street maintenance? Easy-to-understand charts and tables put the information at your fingertips.

You can trust the facts from WISTAX.

The Wisconsin Taxpayers Alliance is the state's oldest and most respected private government-research organization. For 75 years, WISTAX has educated Wisconsin citizens about the operation of their state and local governments.
