How does your school district measure up?

SchoolFacts is Wisconsin's most complete collection of up-to-date school district information that can help you assess how your school district measures up to others across the state. SchoolFacts has always been a great value, but by ordering now, the 2008 edition becomes an even greater value.

SchoolFacts08 contains almost 150 pages of information to help you compare districts and benchmark performance for a range of important indicators such as enrollment, staffing, teacher pay, district revenues and spending, test scores, and tax rates. SchoolFacts08 also summarizes information by CESA and by district size. Order today and save 18%.

Our supplemental conference and customized reports are very popular and make SchoolFacts even more valuable. These reports allow you to compare your school district with comparable districts using easy-to-understand charts and graphs. The conference reports are available to SchoolFacts08 purchasers for an additional $25 and include figures for all districts within an athletic conference. A customized report, comparing your district to nine other districts of your choice, is also available for $50. Other reports are available at additional cost.

SchoolFacts08 will go to press soon. Order before September 15 and you'll receive a $5 discount on the book. You pay only $24.95 per copy. (After September 15, the single-copy price will be $29.95.) Plus, if you order early you also receive $5 off a conference or customized report for a total savings of up to 18%. We pay shipping and handling.

SchoolFacts08, published by the nonprofit, nonpartisan Wisconsin Taxpayers Alliance, remains a valuable reference on Wisconsin school districts. Order today and save.
